

Another Cub Scout Pack 5 Tradition!

“Spring Cabin Camp~Out”

One rustic cabin.
One Cub Pack.

One great camp-out!

Mark your calendars because it's time once again for the annual Pack 5 Cub Scout “Spring Cabin Camp~Out.” As always, this Spring event is open to all of our registered Scouts ~ including Tigers through Webelos II.

May 9 through May 10, 2009. Plan to arrive that Saturday morning at 10:00am (we will not caravan). Return will be the following Sunday, to arrive back in Ann Arbor around 11:00am.

Accommodations

Each Scout must be accompanied by at least one parent or his legal guardian.

Dads and Moms are equally welcome. We have one cabin for the Pack; however, per BSA guidelines, separate male and female sleeping and restroom facilities will be provided and maintained.

Place

This year we've selected the beautiful Camp Teetonkah (Great Sauk Trail Council property, southwest of Grass Lake, in Irish Hills), 51 Highland Drive, Jackson, Michigan.

We'll take care of arrangements through Pack Leadership. But here's a Camp reference.

Preparations

The Boy Scout motto is “always be prepared!” You can count on your Pack 5

Adult Leadership to handle group details and essentials. We need to ask that each person remember the following items (note that this is a partial list).

-  Class B uniform (T-shirt)
-  long sleeve shirt
-  long pants
-  long-underwear
-  two pair wool socks
-  hiking boots
-  alternate pair of footwear

-  raincoat
-  cup, bowl, spoon
-  flashlight
-  sleeping bag
-  toothbrush, toothpaste
-  water bottle

Please do not bring radios, games, MP3 players and the like.

Activities

Look for a full and varied agenda of activities that will include: Hiking, Scout skills, cooking, competitions, a campfire, skits, progress toward Rank-specific advancements and patches ~ and fun!

Registration

Space is limited, you'll need to sign by our April 19th Cross-Over. Cost is $10 per person, payable by cash or check.
